TRAVEL FOR THE WORKING JET SET

Hotel Splendido

Portofino

PORTOFINO AND THE CINQUE TERRE

ITALY our adventure to the ITALIAN RIVIERA begins as you travel through the Liguria region, which is one of the most scenic drives in Italy. It is unfathomable to think that a place like this exists outside of the everyday world of skyscrapers and subway trains, with each vista, twist, turn and drop off cliff both more beautiful and harrowing than the last.

There is no mistaking you have entered the Italian Riviera as you drive through the picturesque towns and glimpse the sparkling Mediterranean Sea. PORTOFINO is the gem of the Italian Riviera, and Hotel Splendido is the crown jewel. You know you are approaching something spectacular as every car you see is a Rolls Royce on the winding roads up to the hotel.

While heart-stoppingly expensive, SPLENDIDO is the most worthwhile ridiculous money you'll ever spend on a hotel. The service is perfect and there is beauty everywhere you turn. Your weekend in the Italian Riviera will be filled with afternoon frolicking in the Splendido infinity pool, yachting in the Mediterranean waters and hiking the CINQUE TERRE. Along the way you will have pesto and fresh fish that will change your whole outlook on Italian cuisine. GALAVANTE with us here.

All the Best,

Christine
